Carl "Pop" Heilig Sr. (3rd generation) and Carl Heilig Jr. (4th generation) are the co-owners of Heilig Orchards. Back in 1909, the great-grandfather of Carl Jr. purchased 93 acres of land to farm cabbage and peppers, naming the business Charles Heilig and Son. Today, Heilig Orchards is made up of 225 acres (190 acres of peaches, 25 acres of apples, and 10 acres of asparagus) 93 of those acres have been permanently preserved by the State of New Jersey. All peaches have drip irrigation and industry leading Integrated Pest Management systems. Each year Carl replaces 10 acres of peach trees to ensure the farm is producing the highest quality peaches.
